

2019 Rowe Bowl Contest

Back for its 26th year, it's the 2019 Rowe Bowl Contest. The deadline is 1:30 PM (Central), Monday, December 23. There is a limit of five entries per person. Please forward or copy this e-mail to anyone you think would be interested in participating (spouses, friends, clients, etc.). Just a reminder that my software limits the number of games to 32 so I'm missing a couple of games. I usually make fun of some of the bowl games at this point but I'm actually disappointed I'm missing SMU (go Buechele!), Boise State, and Appalachian State. The FBC Mortgage Cure Bowl not so much. You can find past results and the standings as the games are completed. My website is: <http://www.markrowecontest.com/RoweBowlIndex.htm>.

A year with no controversy about the playoff teams. Boring. The only question is will LSU run the table. I and my fellow Aggies think they will.

Here is your chance to once again prove your football knowledge (or lack thereof). The rules are simple. Each bowl game is listed along with the point spread. Go to the entry form at my website (see above) and pick the team you think will cover the spread for each game. The spread indicates how much one team is supposed to beat another. For example, UCF (University of Central Florida in case you didn't know) is favored by 17.5 points over Marshall. If you think UCF will win by 18 points or more then pick UCF. If you think UCF will win by 17 or less points or not win at all then pick Marshall. If there isn't a point spread, it means you only have to pick the winner. The tiebreaker will be based on the combined score of the championship game. If you think the score will be 37 to 27 then enter 64 (37 + 27) in the tie breaker box.

Make sure you click the box next to "Email Me a Copy" so you receive a copy of your picks. If you run into any problems, let me know.
